RELEASED ON "YOU TUBE"

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department has developed a series of videos on Home invasion/Robberies and posted these videos on Youtube. These videos can be accessed from the lvmpd web site at www.lvmpd.com and clicking on the Youtube link. These videos are designed to help the public recognize some common tactics of Home invasion robbers and give tips on how to keep you and your family safe before, during and after a Home invasion incident.

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department appreciates the media and its help with getting this message out in an effort to help educate the community and keep our families safe. Any further questions please feel free to contact LVMPD's office of public information officer Ramon Denby. Thank you.
