METRO CONTINUES TO SEARCH FOR SUSPECTS IN YESTERDAYS BUS STOP SHOOTING

Metro officers have interviewed numerous witnesses and examined large amounts of forensic evidence in connection with yesterday afternoon's shooting of six individuals at a local school bus stop.

As a result of this ongoing investigation several solid leads have been developed and are being aggressively pursued. At this time no suspects have been detained or arrested.

The identification, arrest and conviction of those responsible for this incident remains an extremely high priority of all members of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department.

There is no additional information available for release at this time. As more information becomes available, it will be disseminated to all media outlets.
