METRO ARRESTS THREE MORE SUSPECTS IN LAST TUESDAYS BUS STOP SHOOTING

Metro Captain Kirk Primas announced this afternoon that METRO Detectives have arrested three more suspects in connection with the December 11th shooting at a local school bus stop that left six injured. Although it is believed those in custody are the main figures in this crime, Primas stressed the investigation is still on-going, and new leads are being investigated daily.

These arrests bring the total arrested to four, including Nicco Tatum, 18 years of age, who was arrested in Denver Colorado last Wednesday.

Arrested and charged with six counts of attempted murder and six counts of battery with a deadly weapon was Dresden Williams, 18 years of age, of Las Vegas Nevada, and a second unidentified juvenile, 17 years of age.

Arrested and charged with accessory to commit murder and harboring a fugitive was Erica Adams, 20 years of age, also from Las Vegas.

All additional information, including booking photo's, will be released at a later date due to the ongoing nature of this investigation.

Primas stressed solving this crime and prosecuting those involved has been one of METRO's highest priorities over the last seven days. Anyone with additional information concerning this case should contact the L.V.M.P.D. Gang Crimes Bureau at 828-3309, or Crime Stoppers at 385-5555.
