COLLISION DETAILS:

On November 22nd 2008 at 3:43 a.m., a serious injury single vehicle collision occurred on Eastern Avenue approximately 163 feet south of Constantine Avenue. Evidence at the scene indicates a 2001 Isuzu Rodeo was traveling northbound on Eastern Avenue. For unknown reasons the driver lost control of the Isuzu, left the east road edge continuing north. The Isuzu then struck a city light pole and continued north where it struck a Nevada Power utility pole. The Isuzu then came to rest facing southbound east of Eastern Avenue. The occupants were all transported and admitted to UMC Trauma with serious to critical injuries. The collision remains under investigation by the LVMPD Accident Investigation Detail.
