COLLISION DETAILS:

On December 7, 2008 at 5:28 p.m. a two vehicle collision occurred at the intersection of Eastern Avenue and Golden Arrow Drive. Evidence at the scene indicates the 2001 Ford was traveling southbound on Eastern Avenue in the left of three lanes. The 1986 Nissan was traveling northbound on Eastern Avenue, making a left, westbound turn onto Golden Arrow. The driver of the Nissan made the turn failing to yield to the Ford. The driver of the Ford was unable to stop and struck the passenger side of the Nissan. As a result of the collision the two passengers in the Nissan were transported to Sunrise Hospital. No charges have been filed pending further investigation by the LVMPD Accident Investigation Section.
