Det. Smith

On December 27, 2008, the above suspect entered a bank near the 6100 block of West Tropicana and stood in line acting like a customer. The teller asked the suspect if she could help him. The suspect showed a note to the victim demanding money. The suspect displayed a knife in a threatening manner. The teller complied and the suspect took the money and fled on foot east bound then north bound.

Detectives are requesting the public's assistance in identifying this suspect. Anyone with information is urged to call the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department Robbery Section at (702)828-3591 or, to remain anonymous, call Crime Stoppers at (702)385-5555. A cash reward may be available to the person providing information which leads to the arrest and conviction of the suspect.
