Metro To Provide a Safe Halloween Experience at Two Locations

Just a reminder about Metro's Trunk-or-Treat events today. Thank you for your help in promoting these safe and fun events.

Officers will have numerous squad cars and specialized vehicles lined up at two area commands. The cars will be decorated for Halloween, and there will be lots of music and good cheer. Children will be able to go car-to-car to collect candy and interact with officers. There will also be a costume contest for children 12 and under.

This is a great opportunity for people to come to an area command and meet the officers that police their community. Families searching for a safe and fun Halloween experience should attend the Metro Trunk-or-Treat event. It's FREE!

Trunk-or-Treat
Saturday, October 31, 2009
